Flagstaff, AZ

David Rozema, newly-elected Coconino County Attorney, announced today that he will be conducting open office hours on a monthly basis in Page, AZ, starting on Wednesday, February 11, 2009.

“I am committed to serving all of Coconino County. This means that I and other representatives of my office will be visiting with people in all parts of our vast and diverse county on a regular basis”, said Rozema. “It’s important to spend time with citizens from the more rural areas so we can better understand the needs of their communities and bring the resources of the County Attorney’s Office to help in whatever ways we can. These monthly office hours will facilitate greater dialogue between our office and the citizens of Page, LeChee and other surrounding communities.”

Rozema’s open office hours will take place at the Page City Hall from 9:00-11:00 A.M. on the second Wednesday of every month.

“I encourage everyone to stop by and visit with me. I want to know your concerns and hear your suggestions for how we can improve service to your communities”, Rozema concluded.
